

LITERACY BINGO

Winter Edition

See how many of these literacy activities you can do with your family!

Read under a cozy blanket	Play in the snow and write about what you did	Read a book that is new to you	Read a book about winter	Read a wordless picture book
Draw a picture of your favourite part of a book	Read to a pet or a stuffed animal	Swap a book with a friend or family member	Read a favourite book again	Read for five days in a row
Read a silly book	Read outside	FREE SPACE	Watch a movie based on a winter book	Write a letter to a family member
Make some winter art inspired by a book	Read in a tent or fort you created	Practice writing the Blackfoot word for winter: ipákssaisstoyi	Write a story about a snowman who talks	Read in the dark using a flashlight
Build a snowman and write the steps	Read wearing your gloves and hat	Make a paper snowflake and write words on it to describe how snow feels	Read a recipe and bake your favourite winter treat	Read a book in your pajamas

